

Information System

1. Different information requires to be
  - a) searched
  - b) categorized and sorted
  - c) stored
  - d) all of the above
2. Over what period of time was 90% of current digital data made?
  - a) in the last year
  - b) in the last two years
  - c) in the last three years
  - d) in the last four years
3. Why do people depend on information systems?
  - a) they assist us in managing all massive stored data
  - b) they store data massively
  - c) they control information massively
  - d) they help us find databases massively
4. An information system is a set of
  - a) computers for collecting, storing and processing data
  - b) collected computers storing and processing data
  - c) computer-based apps for collecting, storing and processing data
  - d) computer-based tools for rearranging our world
5. Listen and fill in the gaps in the following passages which describe how information systems are used.

Businesses and other ... rely on information systems to ... and manage their operations, ... with their customers and ... , and compete in the ... . For instance, corporations ... information systems to reach their ... customers with targeted ... over the Web, to process financial ... and to manage their ... .

Governments use information systems to provide services ... to citizens, to manage the ... and to gather ... .

Digital goods, such as electronic books and ... , and online services, such as auctions and social ... are all provided by and ... by some kind of information system.
6. A typical information system should have
  - a) data, a program, a user
  - b) a database, a program, a user interface
  - c) data, a database, a user interface
  - d) a database, utilities, commands
7. What aspects of your life involve information systems?

Discussion

Can people live without information systems today?